

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

860 Biblia Sacra Latina, 2 vol. FIRST EDITION OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES, AND THE FIRST BOOK EXECUTED BY THE INVENTORS OF PRINTING, WITH MOVEABLE METAL TYPES. Printed at MENTZ BY GUTENBERG AND FUST, between the years 1450 and 1455.

 This edition is generally known by the name of the MAZARINE BIBLE, from the first discovery of a copy in Cardinal Mazarine's Library, by that eminent Bibliographer Debure. It is printed in double columns, in imitation of the large letters employed by the Scribes in the Church Missals and Choir Books. It would be superfluous to expatiate on the extreme rarity and importance of this article. It must always form the most prominent feature in a Collection of Books of the XVth century; for what book can be more interesting to the Collector, than the first production of the Art of Printing? In contemplating this work the mind is lost in astonishment, that the Inventors of Printing should, by a single effort, have exhibited the perfection of their art. The firmness of the paper, the brightness of the ink, the exact uniformity of the impression have never been surpassed. Trithemius says, in his Chronicle, that he was told by Peter. Schoiffer (the partner and son-in-law of Fust,) that this edition was executed about the year 1450, and that the expenses incurred in the printing were so enormous, that 4000 florins were expended before 12 sheets had been printed.

1921 Abraham Fraunce, the Countesse of Pembroke's Yuychurch, containing the affectionate Life and unfortunate death of Phillis and Amyntas, in English Hexameters, two parts, also part of Heliodorus, 1591. Abraham Fraunce, the Countesse of Pembroke's Emanuel, containing the Nativity, Passion, and Resurrection of Christ, together with Psalms of David, all in English Hexameters, 1591.

* * Both these poems are EXCESSIVELY RARE.
 Fraunce was the friend of Sir P. Sidney, and intimate with Spencer, who esteemed him so highly as to indulge him with the perusal of the Fairy Queen "long before it was published," "Fraunce, (says Mr.
 Todd), shines particularly as an English Hexametrist.
 His Countess of Pembroke's Yewchurch, and his translation of part of Heliodorus, are written in melodious Dactyls and Spondees to the no small admiration of Sidney, Harvey, &c." Mr. Malone has also given a very interesting account of Fraunce and his Works, in his new edition of Shakspeare. See

vol. ii. p. 239 to 245.

1922 Abraham Fraunce's Lawier's Logike. (For an account of this scarce Book, see Todd's Life of Spenser, p. xv.)
 Pieces of Poetry are interspersed through this work.

* * The scarcity of this volume is well known to Collectors. But it has acquired a new and increased value from a very recent discovery, which had escaped the researches of Dr. Burney, Hawkins, and every other writer upon Music. This curious and interesting Work contains THE ORIGINAL OF THE POPULAR AIR OF "GOD SAVE THE KING," so long and so vainly searched for by the Historians and Amateurs of Music.

1924 Maria de Franchis's Marriage Hymne on the Marriage of Frederick Count Palatine, and Elizabeth daughter of James I. a poem, in three bookes, 1613. Fennor's Description, or Poems spoken before James I. the Queene, and the Lady Elizabeth's Grace, very scarce, 1616.

- * * Fludd was a Physician in the time of James I. and a great admirer of the Cabbalistic and Rosicrucian Philosophy. His works abound with wild, visionary, and romantic speculations, but interspersed with observations at once curious, original and profound. His celebrated adversary, Gassendi, fairly allows his extensive and multifarious erudition, and Feinagle is said to have borrowed the plan of his Art of Memory from the treatise in this work.

- 1012 MUSEE FRANÇAIS, Recueil Complet des Tableaux, Statues et Bas Reliefs, qui composent la Collection Nationale, avec l'Explication des Sujets, 4 vol. remarkably fine impressions, - - - Paris, 1803

* * This is unquestionably the GRANDEST PRODUCTION OF MODERN TIMES, and exhibits a series of Engravings by the most distinguished Artists of such a Collection of Paintings and Statues as can never again be assembled together.

- 1013 A GRAND AND SPLENDID COLLECTION OF ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY NINE MEDALS STRUCK AT THE ROYAL MINT OF PARIS FROM 1796 TO 1815, CHIEFLY BY ORDER OF THE EMPEROR NAPOLEON; COMMEMORATING THE MOST BRILLIANT ACHIEVEMENTS, VICTORIES, AND MEMORABLE ACTIONS, BOTH MILITARY AND CIVIL, OF THE FRENCH during that Period. Also Portraits of the Emperors of Russia, Austria, and King of Prussia.

* * This is one of the finest sets which has ever been sold. The Medals are uniformly of the most brilliant impressions, and in the highest possible state of Preservation. The whole are enclosed in a French green morocco case, lined with silk, and placed on Moveable Tablets.

- 1014 ORIENTAL DRAWINGS, a Collection of highly finished and spirited Original Drawings, representing the Manners, Amusements and Costume of the Persians, in yellow morocco.

1015 *MISSALE SECUNDUM USUM ECCLESIAE ROMANAE. A SPLENDID MISSAL WRITTEN UPON VELLUM ON 580
PAGES, AND ORNAMENTED WITH 349 MINIATURE PAINT-

* * * This splendid Missal (which is in the highest state of preservation) is written in a very fair and legible hand, in the early part of the XVth Century. The frequent recurrence of the Royal Arms of France renders it extremely probable that this Missal was executed for a Member of the Royal Family; but as these Arms (three Fleur-de-Lys, to which the armorial bearings were reduced in 1380) are invariably crossed by the line of Bastardy, the Person for whom it was executed must have been illegitimate. This renders it almost certain that this Splendid Missal must have been executed for the Comte de Dunois, Bastard of Orleans, who flourished at this time and signalized himself against the English in 1426. His Father, Lewis Duke of Orleans, was the Son of Charles V. of France, Founder of the Royal Library of France.

596 PRYNNE'S WORKS. A MOST CURIOUS, VALUABLE, AND EXTENSIVE COLLECTION OF PRYNNE'S PUBLICATIONS, collected with great industry, and considerable expense, by the late Mr. Perry, and Chronologically arranged, in 21 vol.

, This extremely interesting, and very valuable Collection of Prynne's Historical and Miscellaneous Publications, is highly DESERVING THE ATTENTION OF PUBLIC LIBRARIES, AND COLLECTORS OF ENGLISH HISTORY. The indefatigable industry, profound research, the multifarious and extensive erudition, the acute and legal knowledge of Prynne were employed in discussing every question of Domestic Policy, and Constitutional History. When Prynne does not convince, he always sends away his Readers with enlarged knowledge. His Works abound with recondite Learning; and Illustrations frequently gathered from Unpublished Records, and throw great light on our early History, and on the controversies and events of the Civil War. Their merits are equally attested by his Persecutions by Laud and Cromwell, Clarendon's praise, and his appointment on the Restoration to be Keeper of the Records in the Tower. Such a Collection has not occurred in any sale for several years.

* * This very curious Collection was made by Steevens, the Editor of Shakspeare, at whose sale it was purchased by the Duke of Roxburghe, who added to it a very curious and extraordinary Letter from Howard (the Accoucheur) addressed to the then Duke of Roxburghe, Secretary of State, attesting the circumstances, and promising to transmit further details to the Royal Society. This volume excited a most ardent competition at the Roxburghe Sale.

* * This curious volume appears to have escaped the notice of the commentators on Shakspeare, till it was pointed out by Mr. Douce in his admirable Illustrations of Shakspeare. It contains many amusing stories. From p. 400 to p. 405 is the "Story of a Jew who would have a pound of a Christians Flesh for his debt." From this tale Shakspeare evidently borrowed Shylock's Reasoning before the Senate.

These very rare little volumes were the joint production of Gibbon and his friend Deyverdun. Gibbon speaks of them with great satisfaction in his Memoirs, and Mr. Anstey in the Life of his Father, says he believes this copy (which I borrowed for him,) is almost unique. The Version of part of Anstey's New Bath Guide is certainly only inferior to the celebrated Townley Hudibras.

Price 586 A MOST CURIOUS, INTERESTING, AND EXTRAORDINARILY EXTENSIVE ASSEMBLAGE OF POLITICAL AND HISTORICAL PAMPHLETS, OF THE LAST AND PRESENT CENTURY. COLLECTED WITH INDEFATIGABLE ZEAL AND AT A CONSIDERABLE EXPENSE BY THE LATE MR. PERRY. IN THIRTY-FIVE BUNDLES. 5000

 This Invaluable Collection of Pamphlets, forms a complete body of Historical Information, and a LIBRARY OF REFERENCE TO THE STATESMAN, for a circumstantial detail of the events of the last and present century. It was the ambition of Lord Somers, and Harley Earl of Oxford, to form such a collection, and its importance may be justly appreciated, by a reference to the two celebrated works which emanated from their stores. Every question of British Politics for the last hundred and twenty years is here agitated, and being discussed by the parties themselves or their antagonists is described with a vividness of feeling, a raciness of expression, and a copiousness of detail, which are in vain sought for in the pages of the Historian.

"There is no nation," says Johnson, "in which it is so necessary as in our own to assemble the small tracts and fugitive pieces." "The writers of these" frequently have opportunities "of enquiring from living witnesses, and of copying their representations from the life, and preserve a multitude of particular incidents which are forgotten in a short time, or omitted in formal relations, and yet afford light in some of the darkest scenes of state." "From pamphlets," says the same celebrated writer, "are to be learned the progress of every debate, and of every opinion." And he compares the impression produced on the mind of him who shall consult these tracts, and of another that refers merely to formal historians, to the difference of him who hears of a victory, and him who sees the battle.

SUCH A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL PAMPHLETS HAS NEVER BEEN SOLD ENTIRE; and it is to be hoped that some spirited Statesman or Public Library will secure a Collection, which, if dispersed, might never again be assembled.

Price 587 ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHT Pamphlets and Tracts on the Bullion Question and state of the Currency, several of 212 them very scarce.
